Canada’s Newest IM – Eric Hansen

FIDE last month granted the IM title to Albertan junior, Eric Hansen. Congratulations Eric – and now on to the GM norms !

2 Canadians at World Junior, Poland

IM Raja Panjwani won the 2009 Canadian Junior, but could not attend the World Junior that year due to school. But he said he would use his prize money to go this year. The 2010 Canadian Junior Champion is FM Shiyam Thavandiran (former SCC junior). Both are currently playing this month in Poland in the 2010 World Junior (U 20 as of Jan. 1), which was headed by 7 2600’s GM’s.. As of publication, they have played 9 rounds of 13.

Their scores after 9 rounds were: Raja – 5.5 pts.(vs GM’s – 2 wins; 1 draw; 1 loss); Shiyam – 4.5 pts..(defeated 1 GM).

At the same time, the World Girls U-20 Championship was held. Canada has no representative.

Here is one of Raja’s wins against a GM. This is his win in Rd. 7, where his opponent wrongly decided to sac the exchange for a P compensation, and then got outplayed by Raja, who was going to go up a R. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

FIDE Presidential Race – Update

The FIDE Presidential Board earlier this month in its meeting in Norway, decided to table to the FIDE General Assembly all discussion regarding the validity of the candidacies for the position of FIDE president. Both candidates had challenged the nomination credentials of the other. The decision was taken because of the conflict of interest caused by the fact that the actual president, and his team, who would be deciding, is also a candidate.

This means that it will be the General Assembly that will decide if Ilyumzhinov's and Karpov's candidacies are valid (nothing like everything being decided at the last minute)..

But Ilyumzhinov is not waiting for technicalities. His website has already claimed victory. Here is an article from ChessVibes:

“ Victory for Ilyumzhinov?

The latest news is that the Ilyumzhinov campaign headquarters have claimed victory. With the support of Hungary, Indonesia and Syria they say they now have 84 federations, a majority of the 167 expected to vote. Before that announcement was made, however, the Karpov campaign had already struck back. Their article, entitled “Kirsan's Paper-Thin Support”, states that the Ilyumzhinov numbers are an illusion: “He can say 50, 80, or 1001 federations are with him, but the truth is slowly being revealed”. It claims that federations are reacting to Ilyumzhinov’s broken promises by switching to Karpov, though fearing intimidation they do not wish to be named at this stage. The article goes on to mention Cyprus. Both the UAE and Cyprus situations [Ed.: of internal division over support] are perfect examples of how bitter the election campaign has become. “

However Kevin Spraggett, in his blog, claims more information:

One more term as FIDE leader?

“ However, I have it from reliable sources that Ilyumzhinov has already more than 110 votes up his sleeve, but that he prefers to create the impression that the much mediatized election campaign is more of a fight than it really is! In particular, for example, the extensive travelling to many FIDE member-nations by the incumbent and the consequent intense media coverage has increased Kirsan's profile around the world and re-enforced his prestige in his own republic (Kalmykia).

In the meantime, Karpov is visiting Argentina--not as part of his FIDE election campaign--but as an invited guest by the government of the Province of Buenos Aires. Karpov has already given several simulcs and interviews. In one interview Karpov was asked what he thought of his chances of winning the September FIDE election...he replied that he felt his chances were very good!.....

This writer believes that Karpov and Ilyumzhinov have already made a sort of truce, probably sometime last month and that the two will cooperate for the good of FIDE and chess as soon as the election is over next month. As explained several weeks ago, Ilyumzhinov (a dedicated Buddhist) has a proven track record of conciliation and cooperation with his opponents. For example, in 2006 both he and Bessel Kok were rumoured to have made a similar agreement months before the actual election. Bessel Kok soon became Kirsan's right hand man in some business venture after the election. “

Kevin's theory may have some credibility – but we will see what the General Assembly does with the nominations challenges – my guess it they will avoid technicalities, and the FIDE legislation, and just let the election go ahead with both candidates.

World Championship Candidates Matches

Last Issue we reported that FIDE had suddenly and without consultation moved the 4 matches, to be held in 2011, from Azerbaijan to Kazan, Russia. The problem had been that candidate Levon Aronian, of Armenia, refused to play in Azerbaijan, because technically the two countries are at war. But then it appeared candidate Veselin Topalov, of Bulgaria, refused to play in Russia, given his 2006 World Championship match there with then World Champion Vladimir Kramnik of Russia, where he felt conditions were unfavourable to him. FIDE President Kirsan Ilyumzhinov then declared that Topalov would be replaced by Alexander Grischuk, of Russia, third place finisher in the 2008-10 Grand Prix, if he refused to play.

But recently, Silvio Danilov, Topalov's manager, said Topalov's position was being wrongly stated. Topalov, assuming contract conditions were acceptable, had no problem playing in Russia. What he had a problem with was playing a Russian in Russia, by which he meant candidate Vladimir Kramnik (both would have to get through their side of the draw, to meet in the finals – something most observers think unlikely). So there may in fact be no “ Topalov-problem “.

But rumour has it that candidate Magnus Carlsen, of Norway, # 1 on the world rating list, is unhappy at the length of the matches, and the fact that there is no break between the semi-final and the final matches. Ilyumzhinov maintains that at this point, Carlsen has registered no formal demands, and seems to have accepted the basic Kazan framework, subject to a contract being signed still. So we are not out of the woods yet on getting these matches on the road. We'll keep you posted.

FIDE Women's Grand Prix # 5, Ulan Bator, Mongolia

The FIDE Women Grand Prix is a series of 6 elite tournaments organized by FIDE and Global Chess, held in various cities around the world, in 2009-10. There are three tournaments each year. The winner of each gets €6,500 out of a prize fund of €40,000. The overall winner of the series receives an additional €15,000 at the end of the series.

The Women Grand Prix has become part of the Women's World Championship cycle, which now becomes an annual event. This year the Champion will be determined in the Women's Knockout World Championship, which will be held in Turkey. Next year, 2011, the World Champion will face the winner of the Grand Prix series 2009/2010 in a match for the title.

There are 12 players in the Ulan Bator Grand Prix, held from July 29 – August 12, including 4 former Women’s World Champions (shown below in red). The winner of the fourth Grand Prix in July, Nana Dzagnidze, was absent this time. The average rating of all 12 players is 2487, making this one of the strongest many-player women's events ever. The players were:

01	Humpy Koneru	IND	2595
02	Hou Yifan	CHN	2589
03	Antoaneta Stefanova	BUL	2560
04	Marie Sebag	FRA	2519
05	Maia Chiburdanidze	GEO	2506
06	Zhao Xue	CHN	2542

07	Tatiana Kosintseva	RUS	2536
08	Zhu Chen	QTR	2488
09	Xu Yuhua	CHN	2484
10	Shen Yang	CHN	2453
11	Batkhuuyag Munguntuul	MGL	2418
12	Betul Yildiz	TUR	2224

The winner was Yifan Hou (16 years old), with 8/12 pts.. In clear second, ½ pts. back, was Stefanova (both won their 12th round games).

The calculation of the current Grand Prix leaders, after this Grand Prix event, had not been posted before we went to press.

In Rd. 6, both Stefanova and Zhao, tied for the lead, played. Zhao came out on top, getting pressure down the centre, and then trapping the BI Q in the corner. With the win, she took sole possession of first place by half a point, going into the last 5 rounds. Hou and Koneru were tied for second. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Elo 2672

Dmitry Andreikin Russia, 20 yo Elo 2650	Nguyen Ngoc Truong Son Vietnam, 20 yo Elo 2617	David Howell England, 19 yo Elo 2616	Parimarjan Negi India, 17 yo Elo 2615	Maxim Rodshtein Israel, 21 yo Elo 2609
--	---	---	--	---

Tied for first after regular play were Nguyen, Vachier-Lagrave, and Caruana, all with 5.5/9 pts.

(from Chess.com) Fabiano Caruana (pictured) won the Biel Young Grandmasters Tournament after a three way play-off with Maxime Vachier-Lagrave and Nguyen Ngoc Truong Son.

All three finished on a score of 5.5/9, and since the best mathematical tie-break belonged to Son, he waited to play the winner of a rapid match between Vachier-Lagrave and Caruana.

Caruana won the first rapid game, lost the second, but took the deciding sudden death game with the black pieces to progress.

In the final tie-break match against Son, Caruana nearly lost the first rapid game, but held for a draw before emerging a convincing winner in the second game to take the title.

British Championship

This 11-round swiss of 78 players was played 25th July - 7th August 2010. Missing were Nigel Short, Luke McShane, David Howell. But there were 8 GM's in the field, including the former # 4 in the world, Mickey Adams, top seed. Adams won with a score of 9 ½ / 11 pts., undefeated. He had in fact clinched clear first after just 10 rounds.

The women's title was secured by Jovanka Houska for the third year in succession, finishing on 6.5/11.

Chess Classic, Mainz, Germany

(adapted from ChessBase) The tenth edition of the Chess Classic Mainz took place from 6th - 8th August 2010. The event had been cut down to three days, but the Chess Classic is still the main rapid chess event in the world, with many top grandmasters in the entry list - Aronian, Gashimov, Karjakin, Grischuk, Bologan, Kamsky, Kasimdzhanov.

The winner of the Open Grenke Rapid World Championship received €6000 in prize money, and also received the prestigious title “Rapid Chess World Champion”.

The winner was USA Champion Gata Kamsky with 10/11 pts., undefeated. Vugar Gashimov, Levon Aronian and Evgeny Bareev scored 9,5 points.

Pan-American Youth Chess Championships, Brazil

Played earlier this month in Brazil, 4 Canadian junior girls attended to represent Canada in this 9-round swiss. Here are their scores:

Canadian Seniors

This 7-round swiss was played in Kitchener at the same time as the Ontario Closed. Despite the title, it was in fact a small Ontario only tournament, with no one rated over 1934 – not really in the league with our other national championships.

Nevertheless, congratulations to Ralph Deline, the winner, who does get to represent Canada at the World Seniors' Championship.

Canadian Amateur

This 3-section 7 round swiss tournament, open to those under 2100, drew 64 players, and was also held in Kitchener at the same time as the Ontario Closed. Again, the title is not really indicative of the nature of the tournament, being an almost all-Ontario event.

The U 2100 winner was expert Paul Becker, on tie-break..

Rick's Chess Trivia

(questions/presentations researched by Rick Garel, former SCC Executive, SCC member, Orillia CC President)

Last Issue's Chess Trivia was the Question:

The chess style of which of the following players most closely resembles Fischer's – Lasker; Tal; Morphy; Petrosian ?

Rick's Answer is : Morphy.

Morphy excelled in open positions, where he pursued clear, simple lines of strategy. Fischer shares this trait.

Today's Trivia Question is:

Which GM has the highest performance rating in world championship chess but never became world champion?

You can use any resource available to answer the question ! Just find it fast and send it in as fast as you can, by e-mail, to Rick : rickgarel@gmail.com .

The first correct e-mail received wins, and gets bragging rights. Also, we will publish the honoured winner's name in the next newsletter, along with a few details they provide as to their chess experience (if they wish), along with Rick's researched answer.

Thanks for playing !!

Chess History is fun !!

Also write Rick if you have any chess trivia questions or presentations you'd like him to consider for his column. He will give credit to the author if he uses your suggestion.

Chess in Pop Songs

(submitted by Erik Malmsten)

I had my friend Dylan make several CDs of chess-related background music to play before rounds at the Canadian Open:

CHESS ROCK

Streethart - Here Comes The Night
Yes - I've Seen All Good People
Jefferson Airplane - White Rabbit
Max Webster - Check
Kottonmouth Kings - Checkmate
Crystal Castles - Chess Mess
Queen - Killer Queen
Billy Haley and his Comets - Rock Around The Clock

CHESS MELLOW

Queen - Play The Game
Chess (Musical) - Anthem
Chess (Musical) - One Night in Bangkok
Elton John - The King Must Die
Bob Seger - Night Moves
Dire Straits - Telegraph Road

CHESS SOUL

Van Morrison and Them - Here Comes The Night
Sonny Charles and the Checkmates - Black Pearl
The Checkmates - Love Is All I Have To Give Aretha Franklin - Think
Etta James - Loser's Weepers
Blues Brothers - Peter Gunn Theme
R.E.M. - Endgame

Couldn't find an MP3 of, or didn't fit in musically:

Suzanne Vegas - Knight Moves
Weezer - Chess
Pink Floyd - Country Song (on movie soundtrack Zabriskie Point, 1970)
Moxy Fruvous - Kasparov vs Deep Blue
Chumbawamba - Spassky Fischer Annihilator - Knight Jumps
Queen Half Man Half Biscuit - Bad Losers On Yahoo Chess

Didn't make a classical disc, pieces too long.

Didn't make a hip-hop disk, lots of swearing. It might include:

Hip Hop Chess Nation (advice for youth)

<http://hiphopchess.blogspot.com/2009/01/hhcf-2009-song-of-year-sabac-reds.html>

Jay-Z - This Life Forever

Papoose - Chess

DJ Muggs & the GZA - General Principles

GZA - Queen's Gambit

Rejected as not chess enough:

Prince - Snowman

Bob Segar - Still the Same

Bob Dylan - Only A Pawn In Their Game

John Mayer - My Stupid Mouth

"played a quick game of chess with the salt and pepper"

Bananarama - It Ain't What You Do

Dr. Feelgood - Suzie Q

Lots of songs with chess in the lyrics found at song lyric sites:

Duncan Sheik - Mr. Chess

Our Lady Peace - Ray Kurzweil 1949-97

InMe - Papillon's Stalemate

Nada Surf - Stalemate

"stalemate jump out of a cake"

Smash Mouth - Padrino

"you can be the rook or pawn"

They Might be Giants - Chess Piece Face

"Chess, like love, like music, has the powers to make men happy." Siegbert Tarrasch

SCC'ers at the Canadian Open

SCC was well-represented at the Canadian Open, held in Toronto July 10-18. We had 30 members in attendance, spread throughout the prize groups. Congratulations to all the SCC'ers who were prize winners (we noted them in the Prize Winners' List in Issue # 11-22).

I did my normal begging at the end of the Open, for games for the newsletter, and actually a few SCC'ers were shamed by my pitiable state, and sent in some games! Last Issue we presented 2 games. We now continue the series, and have yet a few more future installments.

In Rd. 8, your intrepid editor, Bob Armstrong, was faced early, on move 10, with a major dilemma – do I play for rating points against my younger and lower-rated opponent, or do I play for fun, attacking in the Romantic style, with the outcome unclear?

Check out the game, and see if “ fun “ was a sufficient motive. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

McCleary, Reuben (1597) – Armstrong, Robert (1800) [B08]

2010 Canadian Open Toronto (8), 17.07.2010

1.e4= 0.16 1...g6± [1...e5= For Fritz, the only equalizing move. For all other normal replies, including the Modern/Pirc, W is given a " slight " advantage. Do I play solidly (and boringly?) against my lower-rated opponent, and expect to win 7 rating points? Or do I play for " fun " ie. a romantic attack, where mate likely isn't there? There is the chance there is more there than I see; there is the chance that he may go wrong and I get a mate. Well....." fun " won out – I couldn't resist trying it – P's were going to be hanging all over the place, so if I didn't get it I well might lose. But I hoped I at least would have a 3-time repetition draw. So I went for it! However, the result was that it gave Reuben a " clear " advantage [10...Ne7 11.Nh4 Nxd5! 12.Nxd5 Qxh4 13.Bxg4 Bxg4=] 11.Nxd4 exd4 12.Nb5 Qh4 ah ! the romantic attack. 13.Bxg4?=- [13.h3 Ne5 14.Nxc7 Rb8 15.f4 Nd7±] 13...Bxg4 14.f3?!± anticipated; for the first time in the game I get the advantage [14.Qd3 Bd7 15.Nxd4 Rae8=] 14...Be5?!= [14...Bd7 15.a4 f5±] 15.g3

Position after 15.g3

Bxg3! a necessary sac 16.hxg3 Qxg3+ = Reuben is up N vs 2 P's. I offered a draw; that's all there was. He, somewhat relieved, accepted. ½-½

In Michael Rogers game, the advantage went from him, to his opponent, and then back to him again. He ended up with a passed hP on the 4th rank, and it was decisive. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Reminder - SCC AGM – Thursday, Sept. 2

SCC Lazy, Hazy Summer Swiss

This tournament started Thursday, April 29, 2010, and ran to Thursday, June 24 (8 rounds). There were 56 entries for the Open section, headed by 5 Masters and 5 Experts. There were 28 entries for the U 1700 section. This total of 84 players is slightly less than the average of 90 players we have been experiencing in 2010 (this tournament is traditionally a bit smaller with the onset of summer – we had a millennium high of 96 for the club championship).

The top finishers were:

Open Section:

1st – 7 pts. – Expert Bill Peng

2nd/3rd – 6.5 pts. – Expert David Southam; Master Andrei Moffat

U 1700 Section:

1st – 7.5 pts. - undefeated – junior Lin Song

2nd/3rd – 5.5 pts. – Steve Karpik; Ted Termeer

Games were collected each week (the handing in of the white score sheet is mandatory), but no games of this tournament could be sent out to members in database format, nor published, until the tournament had concluded. This is because of the new policy adopted at the September 2009-10 SCC AGM concerning, score sheets, the games database, and the newsletter. If you are interested in finding out about this new policy, just e-mail me at bobarm@sympatico.ca and I will forward to you the new policy. I and SCC member Ken Kurkowski volunteer to enter the SCC games each week into the tournament database, which will shortly be sent out to members since the tournament has now concluded (it does not contain the games we will be publishing over the next number of Issues in the newsletter). I analyze or partly analyze a number of the games, and Ken does a few also from time to time.

Here are some games from Rds. 7 & 8

In Rd. 7 in the Open Section, WIM junior girl Yuanling Yuan managed to win a R on an Andrew Picana oversight (perhaps deliberate), but Andrew did get a forceful K-side attack as a result, and Yuanling had to sac her Q to stop the mate. But she had R + B + 2 P's (one passed and on the 6th rank) vs Q, and the "winning" advantage. But in the time trouble, Andrew was able to repeat Q-checks for a three-fold repetition draw. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

In Rd. 7, in the Open Section, though Larry Luiting exhibited some suicidal tendencies, junior Joseph Bellissimo came up with a very flashy Q-sac offer that is worth the price of admission. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Joseph is on right

In Rd. 7 in the Open Section, Uwe Hahnwald had built up a possible K-side attack, but needed to open up Roy Posaratnanathan's position. He pushed a centre pawn, and Roy wrongly exchanged, opening up the f-file.

Uwe then put pressure on the K-side, and Roy dropped a B, and was going to drop then some pawns. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

In Rd. 7 in the U 1700 section on top board, the championship game was taking place. Lin Song was leading, but Mike Orsini, with a win could catch him. But if Lin won, then no one else could catch him with one round to go. Mike had the chance to exchange his R + P for 2 of Lin's minor pieces, but decided not to do it; he would have gotten the advantage. Then later, Lin managed to go up the exchange by trapping Mike's R in the corner with his N & B, and was already up a P. Lin went on to win, and clinch the U 1700 title. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

In the final Rd. 8 in the Open section, one of the biggest upsets of the tournament took place when B Class junior, defeated Master Bryan Lamb. Tony got the advantage first, a “ winning “ advantage. But then Bryan took over with a strong Q-side attack against Tony’s K. But Tony was busy with his own K-side attack against Bryan’s K. Then Bryan made a somewhat dubious decision to sac his 2 R’s for the Q, but he would still keep a “ winning “ advantage. But then on a natural-seeming move, he wrongly gave Tony a double check which saved his Q, and won the game. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Tony Lin,

Derick gets back a " winning " advantage. But Black resigned! But Fritz points out that he could have won! e.g. [41.g7+ Ke8 42.Nf3 Qc2+-] 41...Qc2+ only move 42.Kh1 Rxg6 43.Re2 Rg1+ 44.Kxg1 Qxh7+- - 6.38 Derick would be up Q + N vs R 1-0

Also in Rd. 8 in the U 1700 section, our youngest junior, faced strong opposition from much lower-rated new junior, Harrison Roy. Kevin did carry the play, and had the advantage, but couldn't convert it to material. But then Harrison, having a slight advantage at this point, blundered the exchange, putting his R's into a skewer. Kevin went on to win. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Kevin Yie,

Roy, Harrison (904) – Yie, Kevin (1332) [C68]

Express Your INNER Self !!

Got a chess issue that has been bothering you for a while? Got a favourite chess topic that you've always wanted to share with other chess players? Read something in SCTCN&V that you profoundly agreed with, or maybe (surely not!) disagreed with?

SCTCN&V may be for you. We are very open to publishing freelance articles from our readers – David Cohen, Erwin Casareno and Erik Malmsten, among others, have presented us with material in the past. We have a columnist, Rick Garel. Maybe there's a writer inside just waiting to get going!

Also, if you would like us to cover some topic, send us your idea, and we'll see if we can write something up on it.

This may be the chance you've been waiting for! Want to express your inner self???
