Issue # 9 - 2 – September 15, 2007

Do You Know ? / Savez-Vous ?

2007-8 SCC Annual General Meeting

This is traditionally held as the opening day of the new SCC season. It was held on Thursday, September 6. There were reports on the past year's activities and then the election of the officers of the club. All existing officers were re-elected :

President: Bryan Lamb
Vice-President: Maurice Smith
Secretary & Webmaster: Steve Karpik
Treasurer: Andrew Philip
Officer-at-Large: Rick Garel

It was also decided that a tournament fee would replace the 2-month membership and be: Adult - $ 40; Senior (65+) - $ 30; Junior (U 18) - $ 20. A survey will soon be distributed to members concerning the possibility of some different formats eg. sometimes having 6 or 8 player round robins, since recently we've only had swisses. One of the problems with round robins is the rescheduling of games, given we are open only the one night/week. The past year was financially prosperous, and we had a good closing balance.

SCC looks forward to another prosperous and chess-filled year.

New SCC Swiss

55 players (a new record for the more recent SCC) registered on Thursday, Sept. 13, to start the two section, 7 round, Howard Ridout Memorial Swiss. This is a new format the club is trying for this swiss, with the top section being 1700 & Over, and the bottom section U 1700. There were 25 players in the top section and 30 in the lower section. It was a bit crowded, but we had sufficient sets, clocks and tables to make it work. If you would still like to get in, no problem – come at 7:00 PM next week to register, and you will be given a “ bye “ for the first round (we’ll try to fit you in somewhere).

Although it sounds preposterous, I think if SCC continues to expand, and we don’t want to move, we may have to consider instituting a waiting list, and each successive tournament, if people drop out for the next tournament, then we let in a new member to take their place. The old member then goes to the top of the waiting list for the next tournament. Something for the executive to chew over !

World Chess Championship, Mexico City

This eight-player double round robin is taking place in Mexico City from September 13 – 30, for the World Chess Champion title.

Viswanathan Anand (India – 2792), highest rated player in the world, Peter Svidler (Russia – 2735) and Alexandre Morozevich (Russia – 2758) qualified by virtue of placing in the top 4 at the St. Luis, Mexico 2005 World Chess Championship. Current 14th World Chess Champion, Vladimir Kramnik (Russia – 2769) qualified when he defeated Veselin Topalov (Bulgaria – 2769), 2005 FIDE World Champion, in the 2006 title reunification match – he therefore replaced Topalov in this world championship. Peter Leko (Hungary – 2751), 2004 World Chess Championship Challenger, Levon Aronian (Armenia – 2750), Boris Gelfand (Israel – 2733) and Alexander Grischuk (Russia – 2726) all qualified through winning in the 2007 Candidates Matches.

In Rd. 1, all games were drawn.

We’ll bring you the final results and some of the games in our next Issue.

Toronto Labour Day Open

This annual institution in Toronto attracted 136 players to the 6 round 5 section swiss, in a new location near Leslie and York Mills. The new venue seemed quite satisfactory, though a bit more crowded at the tables than in past years. It was again excellently organized and TD’d by our SCC President Bryan Lamb (with assistance from wife and new son !).

Bryan doing his TD thing

The Open section was exceptionally strong - Russian GM Bator Sambuev (who had in July tied for second at the Canadian Open), new Canadian Champion Nikolay Noritsyn, IM's Artem Samsonkin, Ron Livshits and Michael Schleifer, and IM-elect Zhe Quan, with some FM's also in attendance.

The winners were (from Bryan's report to SCTCN&V – SCC'ers shown in bold face):

Open section

1st - 2nd: GM Bator Sambuev, 5/6 $650.00
Zhe Quan, 5/6 $650.00

SCC'ers at the Toronto Labour Day Open

(first in a series of 3 articles)

A strong contingent of 17 SCC members showed up for the Labour Day tournament, playing in all the sections : Rick Garel, Oscar Villalobos, Mario Moran-Venegas, Stephen Lung, Patrick Lung, Muneshwar Samaroo, Aaron Wu, Yuanling Yuan, Doug Gillis, Joe Bellomo, Jim Roe, Maurice Smith, Michael Perez, Marc Ben-Avraham, Randy Moysoski, Josh Sherman and myself, Bob Armstrong (hope I didn't miss anybody). As can be seen from the earlier report on the tournament, congratulations are in order to those SCC'ers who won prizes – Yuanling, Jim, Patrick & Michael.

As usual, I begged for games from them for the newsletter and got a number of interesting ones.

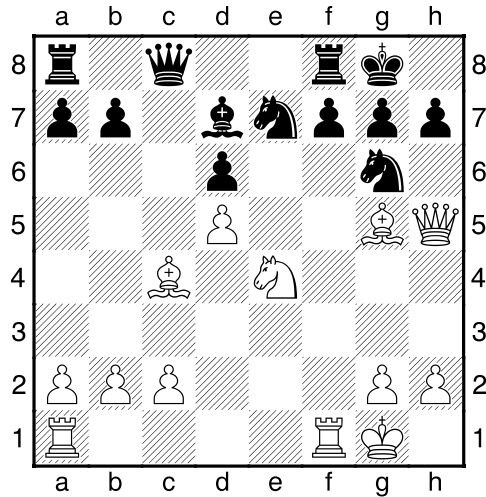

Here is a nice miniature by Doug Gillis (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):
