This fourteenth issue of Northern gives the ratings intermediate between EP # 73 and # 74.

Blacklist

The CFC Blacklist is published in each issue of Northern. The list divides itself into three groups:

1. Those who have bounced cheques to organizers and have failed to make them good: Irene Gil, Don Mills; Nick Treanor, St Catherines;
2. Those who have repeatedly played in CFC tournaments without being a member: Daniel Boudreau, Hauterive; Sofie Golebiewski, Toronto; Andre Jean, Montreal; Andris Leimanis, Montreal; Roger Page, Montreal;
3. Those who have bounced cheques or refused to pay for goods or services from the CFC: Analito Castillo, Vancouver; Ken Field, Toronto; June Hogquist, Milwaukee; Peter Kimmerly, Vancouver; Joe Lovett, USA; Lique d'échecs de Québec; Mike Mansfield, Ottawa; Suzanne Pepin, Ottawa; Dave Ridge, Toronto; Linda Sedore, Toronto; Tim Stewart, Hamilton; Stimulus Sales, Barrie Ont; Terry Warner, Saint John's.

Interzonals

Kevin Spraggett is now in Taxco (Mexico), playing in the Interzonal. Other competitors in the Taxco Interzonal are: Timman (Netherlands), Romanishin (USSR), Cebalo (Yugoslavia), Pinter (Hungary), Alburt (USA), Aqdestein (Norway), Noqueiras (Cuba), Xi Jingxuan (China), Prandstetter (Czechoslovakia), and Saed (UAE). John Nunn (England) withdrew and was replaced by Browne (USA). Rumour has it that two other players withdrew and that the Interzonal was reduced to 16 players. Hübner is said to be one of the two who are not participating.

Grant Spraggett went to Mexico as Kevin's second. The CFC agreed to pay Grant's airfare, partly because it was thought that Kevin would be unable to go to the Canadian Closed (the CFC has traditionally paid travel costs of the reigning champion to the Closed). When it was discovered that the Interzonal was being held in a 5 star hotel and that seconds and others would be charged us$60 per day (about $83 Canadian), the Spraggetts asked for some extra assistance. Grant said he would not be able to afford the cost if he had to pay the full amount of the hotel bill.

Your editor phoned the Mexican FIDE representative, who turned out to be the owner of the hotel in question, and explained the situation. Mr. Cheka did not make a firm commitment, but may well have allowed Grant to stay in Kevin's room at no extra charge. In any case, CFC President Terry Fleming undertook a whirlwind Executive vote to provide an additional $500 to Grant to help cover hotel expenses.

In Tunis, final results were: (1) Yusupov 11½; (2) Beliavsky 11; (3) Portisch 10; (4-5) Chernin, Gabrikov 9½; (6-8) Dlugy, Hort, Sosonko 9; (9) deFirmian 8½; (10-12) Miles, Suba, Nikolic 8; (13) Marovic 7½; (14-15) Ermenkov, Zapata 6½; (16) Affifi; (17) Hamadi; (18) Bouaziz.

Bouaziz withdrew after 5 rounds. DeFirmian had an opportunity to get into the tie for 4th place, but overpressed in a 2B vs N+3P ending against Ermenkov, allowing one of the Ps to hit the 8th rank. Chernin and Gabrikov will play a match (probably in the Soviet Union) to determine the 4th qualifier to the Candidates' Tournament.

Women's Interzonals

Canadian Women's Champion Nava Shterenberg was assigned to the Zheleznovodsk Interzonal in the Soviet Union. As both Nava and her husband are Soviet emigres, they felt that they could not safely return to the Soviet Union under any circumstances. However, FIDE did not announce the composition of the Women's Interzonals until May 2, with a starting date of June 18. Upon learning of the situation, the CFC immediately protested the lack of adequate notice and requested a change of venue on behalf of Nava.

The same situation had arisen at the last Women's Interzonal, when she had to be placed in the Interzonal in Germany. However, after a flurry of telegrams, letters and phone calls, FIDE rejected our objections and it looked as though Canada would not be represented. At the last moment, Swiss player Tatiana Lematchko withdrew from the Havana Interzonal, and FIDE President Campomanes kindly assigned Nava to the vacant place.

World Cadet

Canadian Cadet Champion Morgan Butt made the long trip to Petah Tikva (Israel) and quickly discovered there were no easy points to be made. Rojas of Chile topped the field, finishing with 8½-2½, Cicak of Sweden was second at 8, Kosic (Yugoslavia) and Manor (Israel) tied for 3rd with 7½. Morgan was, alas, well off the pace set by the leaders. He finished with ½. Lynn Stringer reports that he tried very hard and represented Canada well, in that he was a fine sportsman.

He was the youngest competitor at the event and the experience will stand him in good stead in the future.

Moncton Qualifier

The last of the 4 Qualifiers was held in Moncton. Robert Hamilton was the winner. The turnout was disappointing, especially for an event that was supposed to raise money for the Canadian Closed: only 4 players participated.

EOCA Grand Prix

The Eastern Ontario Chess Association's Grand Prix wound up for another year with the holding of the Ottawa Open. Brian Hartman had the first place money all wrapped up before the event started, which was just as well since he only scored 3½-1½. Gordon Taylor had a fine finish, beating Hartman in the last round and ensuring himself of clear first in the tournament (4½-½) and second in the Grand Prix. Paul Burgess won the class prize.

NOTICE to TDs and Organizers

It is the responsibility of the Organizer or the Tournament Director to check CFC cards to ensure that all the players are current CFC members.

The CFC Business Office has received a number of events for rating in which a high proportion of the players were not members. The following events have not been rated for that reason:

- Montreal Swiss (March 10)
- P.Viminitz 0-4 A.Hussain (April 15)
- Moncton Qualifier (May 18-20)
- Willowdale CC Winter Swiss (Apr)
- Red Deer Miscellaneous (Jan - Apr)
- Red Deer Club Championship (Jan - Apr)
- Saint John Class C (Jan - Apr)
- Scarboro Maytime C (Mar 31 - May 19)
- J.Beaton 2½-1½ A.Miller (Apr - June 4)

The Avalon Spring Warm-up also had a large number of non-members, but it was rated because we have been informed that the organizer collected membership fees for the "missing" individuals. These people played in two other events, which were almost added to the list above because of the number of apparent non-members.

It is a serious matter for an organizer to collect membership fees and not submit them promptly. Organizers who do so will be added to the Blacklist.

One organizer asked us to ignore results of games played with non-CFC members, and rate the remainder. In a tournament with 10 players, it would have taken him all of 3 minutes to check for current CFC cards. It would take the Business Office approximately an extra working day to key in the initial information, run all the computer programs (one of which would kick the event out as having too many non-members), revise the entire cross-table, key in the information again and rerun all the rating programs.

It takes a long time because we do the ratings in large groups: rating all the events for this issue of Northern took about 2½ working days. This was somewhat longer than usual due to the carelessness of organizers in submitting information: missing membership numbers, incorrect numbers (one submission had 9 incorrect membership numbers with only 32 players in the tournament!), non-members, expired members, and incorrectly recorded pairings are only some of the problems we face.

The Business Office is being inundated with improperly submitted events. In the current rating period, 54 events were submitted. We have refused to rate 9. Another 17 had substantive errors. That means nearly 50% of the events required some special attention by the Business Office, extra work which is created by organizers and directors who simply don't do their jobs properly. It saves everyone time if you do it right the first time! Please check membership cards for expiry dates.

Journalists and affiliates receive NORTHERN free of charge.

Nationally certified Tournament Directors (NTDs) receive NORTHERN free of charge until August 1986.
