WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Final Games

Gary Kasparov is the new World Champion! Karpov made it close when he won game 22: another win would have tied the match, leaving him with the title. However, being in a "must win" situation against a player like Kasparov is not an enviable position. Kasparov made the most of his chances.

Karpov and Kasparov have now played 82 games against one another in the two matches. Each has won 8 games, with 66 draws. Karpov has announced his intention to exercise his option to play another match for the title. FIDE President Florencio Campomanes is seeking bids to hold the rematch from February 10 to March 21.
