Igor Ivanov is once again the Canadian Champion. Ivanov and Kevin Spraggett drew their playoff match 3-3 and Ivanov's better tiebreak from the Closed gave him the title. Canadian Cadet Alexandre LeSiege tied for first place with Serge Gagnon. Alexandre had the better tiebreak and took the title when he won the first game of a scheduled 2-game playoff.

He will be Canada's representative in the World Cadet Championship in Innsbruck, Austria in May. The Chess Federation of Canada will pay his entry fee, ½ his airfare and will provide $250 to help defray the costs of an accompanying person. The Québec Chess Federation (FQE) has refused to pay any part of the costs.

Canadian Closed 1987 The Canadian Closed will be held in Bale-Comeau, with a prize fund of $2,000. The Chess Federation of Canada will give a grant of $1,000 to the organizers. The Bale-Comeau Club will provide room and board for all the players.

World Junior 1987 The organizers of the World Junior in Toronto had trouble with fund-raising efforts. Chris Field made a valiant effort to salvage the tournament, but was unable to come up with adequate guarantees in the limited time available. FIDE was notified of the difficulties encountered and, fortunately, was able to find another country to host the event. The World Junior will be held in Manila, in the Philippines.

The Canadian representative will be the winner of a playoff between Rehan Huda (Winnipeg), Kevin Gentes (Winnipeg) and Vinny Puri (Toronto).

Iceland

The IBM International, held in late February and early March in Reykjavik, ended in a victory for English GM Nigel Short. The tournament was a strong category 14 event. Short took an early lead with six wins in six games. He lost to Johann Hjartasson in round 7 and drew his remaining games to finish with 8/11.

Tal and Timman shared second with 7, followed by Korchnoi and Portisch on 6½. Coming on the heels of his shared first place at Wijk aan Zee, this win makes Short begin to look like World Championship challenger material.

Junior/Olympic Chess Week

ORGANIZERS TAKE NOTE!

November 14-22, 1987 has been designated JOCW week for 1987. These special events are held to fulfil the following purposes:

(a) to attract more of Canada's 4 million chess players to competition by removing the hurdles of high entry and membership fees. JOCW tournaments are rated and each non-CFC participant will receive his rating, an issue of EP and an invitation to join the CFC.

(b) to support Junior chess. Half of the proceeds will go to the CFC's Junior Chess Fund.

(c) to support Canada's Chess Olympic Teams. Half of the proceeds will go to the CFC's Olympic Fund.

Here are the guidelines for the events:

1. A one-day tournament of three rounds. This may be held any time between November 14-22.

2. No CFC or provincial memberships will be necessary. Entry fees shall be $8 adult, $4 junior or senior citizen; all but $1 of each entry will be submitted to the CFC.

3. Emphasis will be given to promoting the event for new non-CFC players, particularly juniors.

4. Organizers will distribute CFC promotional literature at the playing sites.

5. Organizers shall send the money, results and names and addresses of all entrants to the CFC business office within one week of the completion of the event.

If the above guidelines are followed, the CFC will provide:

A. A performance rating and current magazine will be mailed to each non-member of the CFC.

B. The CFC will issue tax receipts for any individual donations received by organizers for either the Olympic or the Junior Fund.

C. The CFC will provide book and chess equipment prizes.

D. A complete list of events will be published in the October issue of En Passant. If you are interested in popularizing chess - even if you have never organized a tournament before - write to us today.

E. The CFC will be prepared to help any organizer with a reasonable request in regards to promoting this Chess Week.

The JOCW events are a unique opportunity to spread the chess message among the unconverted and, at the same time, to support the CFC's Junior and International programs. If you wish to make a difference in Canadian chess, here is your chance.
