NEWS

Thessaloniki

The Canadian national team scored a total of 36 points, finishing in a tie for 35-37th place. Canadian Champion Igor Ivanov was not playing up to his usual high standard, scoring 3 draws and 4 losses in 7 games. Roman Pelts (+4, =2, -3) and Deen Hergott (+3 =4 -2) were both heading towards IM norm results, but neither one made it in the end. Tom O'Donnell (+5 =3 -3), playing in his first Olympiad, had the best percentage score on the Canadian team. Leon Piasetski (+5 =2 -3) also scored well. Bryon Nickoloff made +2 as well, with 4 wins, 4 draws and 2 losses.

On the Canadian women's team, Nava

Shterenberg (+4 =2 -6) faced the most difficult opposition. Céline Roos (+8 =1 -3) had a stellar tournament again, but the competition for the board 2 medals was much stiffer: one of the Polgar sisters (Hungary) scored 13.5/14 to take the gold medal. Vesma Baltgailis (+1 =1 -6) had one of those tournaments which is best forgotten. Diane Mongeau (+5 =3 -2) did very well as the reserve player.

The Soviet Union claimed the gold medal in the men's event (surprising no one). England edged out the Netherlands for the silver medal (on tiebreak). The USA finished fourth.

The Hungarian Women's team was the talk of the tournament. With the average age of the team being close to 16 (consisting as it did primarily of the Polgar family), Hungary took the gold medal with half a point more than the Soviets. Perhaps the loss of the Soviet board 2 player to US Team Captain John Donaldson part way through the Olympiad affected the team, but the Polgars were definitely on the right track in any case.

World Cup: Reykjavik

The World Cup events are all nothing short of amazing. In the past, it was rare to see a really powerful field of players, and tournaments which managed to attract a significant number of the top players can just about be counted on one set of fingers. The field in Reykjavik included reigning World Champion Gary Kasparov (+6 =10 -1), who finished in first place as usual, and who is leading the World Cup at present. Second went to Alexander Beliavsky. Former World Champion Mikhail Tal was third. Johann Hjartarson, Jaan Ehlevest, Arthur Yusupov, Gyula Sax, Jan Timman, John Nunn, Jonathan Speelman, Ulf Andersson, Andrej Sokolov, Predrag Nikolic, Zoltan Ribli, Lajos Portisch, Boris Spassky, Viktor Korchnoi and Margeir Petursson were the other competitors. It isn't often that you see a former World Champion (Spassky) finishing a tournament third from the bottom with a -3 score (+1 -4 =12)!

TOURNAMENT DIRECTORS

Please remember to put the DATES of your tournament on the crosstables you submit to the Chess Federation of Canada for rating. It is important to rate tournaments in the order in which they are played. Thank-you for your co-operation in helping to maintain the accuracy of the rating system!

Please be sure to give individual total scores as well. Adding up the results for your tournament should not take too much time.

Including the names of the tournament organizer, the reporter and the tournament director on the crosstable will enable us to properly acknowledge those who put in the time and effort to make the tournament a success.
