Edited by Gordon Taylor

This thirty-seventh issue of Northern gives the ratings intermediate between EP #98 and #99.

Blacklist

The CFC blacklist is published in each issue of Northern.

The list is divided into four groups:

1. Those who have bounced cheques to organizers and have failed to make them good: Nick Treanor, St. Catharines; David Kitchicappo, Scarborough;

2. Those who have repeatedly played in CFC tournaments without being a member: Daniel Boudreau, Hauterive; Andre Jean, Montreal; Andris Leimanis, Montreal; Roger Page, Montreal;

3. Those who have bounced cheques or refused to pay for goods or services from the CFC: R. Andstein, Nova Scotia; Bill Davidson, Oakville; Ken Field, Toronto; June Hogquist, Milwaukee; T. Kelly, Toronto; Peter Kimmerly, Vancouver; Joe Lovett, USA; Ligue d'echecs de Quebec; Armando Moyano, Canary Islands, Spain; Suzanne Pepin, Ottawa; Linda Sedore, Toronto; Dennis Smeckert, St. Catharines; Tim Stewart, Hamilton; Stimulus Sales, Barrie; Oon-Thanh Troung, Edmonton; The Book Works, Abbotsford;

4. Those organizers who have been barred from running CFC rated tournaments: Chris Field, Scarborough; Ken Field, Toronto.

News

Canadian Women's Closed

This year's Canadian Women's Closed and Zonal Championship was held in Scarborough from September 15-24 and witnessed yet another victory by Nava Starr (note name change from Nava Shterenberg) with a 8.5/10 score. The six top Canadian women players battled it out in a double RR. Clear second was former Canadian Women's Champ, Smilja Vujosevic (Mrs. V. to Toronto chess fans) at 6.5. Sharing 3rd-4th were Dianna Palamarek of Alberta and Vesma Baltgailis of Montreal with 4.5, followed by Urmila Zdenka Das at 4 and Diane Mongeau at 2. Canadian women's chess is much weakened by the return to France of Celine Roos, who represented Canada so well at several Olympiads. Many thanks to the organizers: Alex Knox, Yves Farges, John Pusa and Maurice Smith.

World Junior

The 1989 World Junior took place in Tunja, Columbia from August 15-30. Jacek Gdanski of Poland led throughout but a late loss enabled Vasil Spasov of Bulgaria to pull level at 9.5/12 and take the title on tie-breaks. Canadian representative Rehan Huda of Winnipeg, ably assisted by Todd Southam of Toronto, finished with 7/12 sharing 17-23 place. An interesting note is that both the US and British Chess Federations declined to send players, fearing that security would be inadequate. The World Girls title was taken by Ketevan Kakhiany of the U.S.S.R. with an 11.5 score ahead of Ildiko Madl of Hungary at 11.

TOURNAMENT DIRECTORS

Please remember to put the DATES of your tournament on the crosstables you submit to the Chess Federation of Canada for rating. It is important to rate tournaments in the order in which they are played. Thank-you for your co-operation in helping to maintain the accuracy of the rating system!

Please be sure to add up the player's scores and include them in the cross-table. It shouldn't take too much time.

Including the names of the tournament organizer, the reporter and the TD on the crosstable will enable us to properly acknowledge those who put in the time and effort to make the tournament a success.

The World Cadet

Puerto Rico hosted this event during the first two weeks of August. The under 16 championship was won by Sergei Tiviakov of the U.S.S.R. with 9/11. Tied 2nd-3rd were IM Matthew Sadler of England and Boris Kogan of Israel. Canadian rep Adam Littke was a bit disappointed with his 5 points, spoiling many promising positions. Two other Canadians competed in other sections: Québec phenom Alexandre Lesiège scored 6.5/11 in the under 14 section and Erez Davy 3/11 in the under 10. The playing conditions have met with much criticism from all over the globe. Adam Littke writes: "Accommodations were very bad, we had to stay in army barracks! The food was not good either, but the organization was also very bad."

British Championship

The new British Champion is 17-year Michael Adams from Truro, England. His 8.5/11 score placed him just ahead of Danny King, Jon Mestel and David Norwood who shared 2nd-4th with 8 points. For Norwood, a familiar player in Toronto if not the rest of Canada, this result was good for his 3rd and final GM norm. Congratulations, David! Michael Adams recently became the world's youngest GM by scoring his third GM norm at a tournament in Belgium and his title was in fact confirmed at the FIDE Congress in Puerto Rico during the course of the championship.

United States Open

New York GM Lev Alburt was the winner of this year's open held in Chicago in early August. He gave up but one draw en route for 8.5/9 just ahead of Maxim Dlugy at 8 points. Former Canadian Champ Igor Ivanov was in the tie for 3rd-10th. Igor has recently moved to the States, reportedly embittered by the choice of Spraggett as Canada's representative to the Saint John Candidates' Finals last year. On the other hand, he's been playing most of his chess in the States for several years now, so it may have been primarily a professional move. It's rather ironic that Igor has had to concede the lead in the U.S. Grand Prix circuit to another Ivanov! Alexander Ivanov, himself a Soviet emigre, is the the current leader. Still, the following game shows that Igor has lost none of his brilliance:

World Cup

The sixth and final event of the World Cup cycle took place in the northern Swedish town of Skelleftea. After his collapse at the fifth World Cup event in Holland (where he lost his last three games), Anatoly Karpov could not summon up the energy to challenge Kasparov here in Sweden. In fact they both seemed tired and finished with identical 9.5/15 scores, ahead of Portisch, Seirawan and Short at 8.5. Thus Kasparov secured first place in the World Cup and with it the $100,00 first prize. Each player counted his three best finishes out of their four events played. Second place went to Anatoly Karpov followed by Salov, Ehlvest, Ljubojevic and Nunn in that order, rounding out the top six. These six advance automatically to next year's World Cup, the remaining places to be filled through various qualifying events.

Tilburg, Holland

World Champion Gary Kasparov demolished the field scoring 12/14 in this eight man double RR event. He drew four games with black and won the rest! His rating is now estimated to be 2795, finally eclipsing Fischer's top rating of 2785. Korchnoi was second with 8.5, followed by Ljubojevic and Sax at 7 and the young Ivanchuk at 6.5. Agdestein and Hjartarson at 5.5 and Piket with 4 rounded out the field. Here is one of Kasparov's typically incisive games in the very topical Vienna variation of the QGD:
