World Championship

After 12 games the World Championship Match between Champion Gary Kasparov and Anatoly Karpov was deadlocked at 6 each with only two decisive games. The venue was then moved to Lyon, France where the play heated up considerably! After 20 games Kasparov seems certain of retaining his title as he leads by 11-9 with just four games remaining. Gary won the 16th with some very fine endgame play. At 102 moves the game was long but no record. Karpov evened the score in the 17th; a comprehensive victory where Kasparov seemed to have missed the strength of 26.Rc6! Since then it's been bad news for Karpov as he lost both the 18th and 20th games with Black in the Ruy Lopez. The 20th game especially looks like a classic. Here are the three most recent victories:

29th Chess Olympiad Novi Sad, Yugoslavia

The gold medal was taken by the USSR with 39 points from 56. Even without Kasparov and Karpov the Soviet team proved to be too strong. Ivanchuk played top board and Gelfand second. Silver went to the US team, led by Yasser Seirawan, on tie-break over England who captured the bronze. Both scored 35.5 points. Hébert 2.5/7, Nikoloff 6/10, O'Donnell 4.5/11, Hergott 7/9 and Taylor 4.5/7.

Deen Hergott's score was good for a bronze medal on 1st reserve. Deen also received the IM title at the FIDE Congress as did Quebec's Alexandre Lesiège. Both titles are conditional upon the players achieving a 2400 FIDE rating over the next year. Four Canadians received the FIDE Master title: Todd Southam, Glenn Johnstone, François Léveillé and Alexandre Lesiège. In the FIDE elections, Florencio Campomanes was re-elected to a third term as President.

Here are two games by our players: the first is probably Kevin's best game, and was a key win from our round 10 match with Chile. The second is a typical Hergott win versus the player from Mongolia.

In the Women's Olympiad the Hungarian team led by the three Polgar sisters took the gold medals on tie-break over the USSR team. Both scored 35 points from 42. China took the bronze with 29 points. Canada's Women's Team fared poorly, finishing in 53rd place despite being seeded 30th. The absence of Nava Starr from top board was sorely felt. Diane Mongeau was the only Canadian woman to really put in a good score. Individual scores were: Smilja Vujosevic 5/11, Vesma Baltgailis 1/9, Dianna Palamarek 4.5/10, and Diane Mongeau 8/12.
