Canadian Junior

Held in Edmonton from December 27 to January 4, the Canadian Junior ended in a three way tie for first place between Vinny Puri of Toronto, and Kevin Gentes and Rehan Huda of Winnipeg. They scored 8½/11, and will contest a playoff match (likely in Winnipeg in April) to determine Canada's representative to the World Junior. Robin Girard placed fourth with 8 points after having led the tournament most of the way.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Belgium The OHRA international held in December in Brussels boasted the highest ever average FIDE rating, an impressive 2636. It was also Gary Kasparov's first individual tournament since becoming World Champion. He did not disappoint his fans. Kasparov scored 7½-2½ in the 6 player double RR, 2 points more than the second place finisher, Victor Korchnoi. John Nunn and Robert Hübner had even scores while Nigel Short (4), and Lajos Portisch (3), rounded out the field. Kasparov did not manage to go undefeated, losing in the first cycle to Short. He later gained revenge in a game which won the best game prize.

Israel The GM tournament held in Jerusalem at the same time as the Dubai Olympiad ended with GMs Dmitry Gurevich of the US and Simen Agdestein of Norway sharing first place with 8-3 scores. Curt Hansen of Denmark was third with 7½. Further back in the field were such well known names as; Victor Korchnoi (6), Gennadi Sosonko (5½), and Joel Benjamin (4½).

USA The 1986 Pan-American Intercollegiate Team Championship was held over the Christmas holidays in Providence, Rhode Island. The University of Chicago and Harvard University tied for first with 6½ match points. The University of Toronto was among those teams tied for third with 6, while the University of Western Ontario scored 3½ sharing second under 1800.

FIDE FIDE has revised the dates determining eligibility for events by age group. The new cut-off date is January 1 of the year in which the championship is to be held. For example, in the World Under-20 championship in 1987, participants must have been born after January 1, 1967. The previous dividing line was September 1.

Rating List Gary Kasparov retains the top spot on the January 1987 list, although he lost 5 points in his match with Anatoly Karpov and dropped to 2735. Karpov holds down the number two spot at 2710. Andrei Sokolov and Artur Yusupov share third at 2645.
